PHIL. iii. 12.

Not as tho' I had already attained, either were already perfect.

1. THERE is scarce any Expression in Holy Writ, which has given more Offence than this. The Word Perfect is what many cannot bear. The very Sound of it is an Abomination to them. And who-soever preaches Perfection (as the Phrase is) i. e. asserts that it is attainable in this Life, runs great Hazard of being accounted by them, worse than a Heathen Man or a Publican.

2. And hence some have advised, wholly to lay aside the Use of those Expressions; "because they have given so great Offence." But are they not found in the Oracles of GOD? If so, by what Authority can any Messenger of GOD lay them aside, even tho' all Men should be offended? We have not so learned CHRIST; neither may we thus give place to the Devil. Whatsoever GOD hath spoken, that will we speak, whether Men will hear, or whether they will forbear: Knowing that then alone can any Minister of CHRIST be pure from the Blood of all Men, when he hath not shunned to declare unto them all the Counsel of God.

3. We may not therefore lay these Expressions aside, seeing they are the Words of God and not of Man: But we may, and ought to explain the Meaning of them; that those who are sincere of Heart, may not err to the Right-Hand or to the Left, from the Mark of the Prize of their high Calling. And this is the more needful to be done, because in the Verse already repeated, the Apostle speaks of himself as not perfect; Not, saith he, as tho' I were already perfect. And yet immediately after, in the 15th Verse, he speaks of himself, yea and many others, as perfect; Let us, saith he, as many as be perfect, be thus minded.

4. In order therefore to remove the Difficulty arising from this seeming Contradiction, as well as to give Light to them who are pressing forward to the Mark, and that those who are lame be not turned out of the Way, I shall endeavour to shew,

First, In what Sense Christians are not ; and,

Secondly, In what Sense they are perfect.

I.) 1. In the first Place I shall endeavour to shew, in what Sense Christians are not perfect. And both from Experience and Scripture it appears, first, that they are not perfect in Knowledge: They are not so perfect in this Life, as to be free from Ignorance. They know, it may be, in common with other Men, many Things relating to the present World: And they know, with regard to the World to come, the general Truths which God hath revealed. They know likewise (what the natural Man receiveth not; for these Things are spiritually discerned) What manner of Love it is, wherewith the Father hath loved them, that they should be called the Sons of God. They know the mighty Workings of his Spirit in their Hearts, and the Wisdom of his Providence, directing all their Paths, and causing all Things to work together for their Good; yea, they know in every Circumstance of Life, what the Lord requireth of them, and how to keep a Conscience void of Offence both toward God and toward Man.

2. But innumerable are the Things which they know not. Touching the Almighty Himself, they cannot search Him out to Perfection. Lo, these are but a Part of his Ways; but the Thunder of his Power, who can understand? They cannot understand, I will not say, how there are Three that bear Record in Heaven, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and these Three are One; or how the eternal Son of God took upon Himself the Form of a Servant: But not any one Attribute, not any one Circumstance of the Divine Nature. Neither is it for them to know the Times and Seasons when God will work his great Works upon the Earth; no, not even those which he hath in part revealed, by his Servants the Prophets, since the World began. Much less do they know when God, having accomplished the Number of his Elect, will hasten his Kingdom: When the Heavens shall pass away with a great Noise, and the Elements shall melt with fervent Heat.

3. They know not the Reasons even of many of his present Dispensations with the Sons of Men: But are constrained to rest here, Tho' Clouds and Darknes are round about him, Righteousness and Judgment are the Habitation of his Seat. Yea, often with regard to his Dealings with themselves doth their Lord say unto them, What I do, thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. And how little do they know, of what is ever before them, of even the visible Works of his Hands? How he spreadeth the North over the empty Place, and hangeth the Earth upon nothing? How he unites all the Parts of this vast Machine by a secret Chain which cannot be broken? So great is the Ignorance, so very little the Knowledge of even the best of Men.

II.) 4. No one then is so perfect in this Life as to be free from Ignorance. Nor, secondly, from Mistake, which indeed is almost an unavoidable Consequence of it; seeing those who know but in part, are ever liable to err, touching the Things which they know not. 'Tis true, the Children of God do not mistake, as to the Things essential to Salvation. They do not put Darknes for Light, or Light for Darknes, neither seek Death in the Error of their Life. For they are taught of God, and the Way which he teaches them, the Way of Holiness, is so plain, that the wayfaring Man, tho' a Fool, need not err therein. But in Things unessential to Salvation, they do err, and that frequently. The best and wisest of Men are frequently mistaken, even with regard to Facts; believing those Things not to have been, which really were, or those to have been done, which were not: Or, suppose they are not mistaken, as to the Fact itself, they may be, with regard to its Circumstances; believing them, or many of them, to have been quite different, from what in Truth they were. And hence cannot but arise many farther Mistakes. Hence they may believe either past or present Actions, which were, or are evil, to be good; and such as were, or are good, to be evil. Hence also they may judge, not according to Truth, with regard to the Characters of Men: And that not only by supposing good Men to be better, or wicked Men to be worse than they are; but by believing them to have been, or to be good Men, who were, or are very wicked; or, perhaps, those to have been, or to be wicked Men, who were, or are holy and unrepveable.

5. Nay, with regard to the Holy Scriptures themselves, as careful as they are to avoid it, the best of Men are liable to Mistake, and do mistake Day by Day; especially, with respect to those Parts thereof, which less immediately relate to Practice. Hence even the Children of God are not agreed, as to the Interpretation of many Places in Holy Writ: Nor is their Difference of Opinion any Proof that they are not the Children of God on either Side. But it is a Proof, that we are no more to expect any living Man, to be infallible, than to be omniscient.

6. If it be objected to what has been observed under this and the preceeding Head, that St John, speaking to his Brethren in the Faith, says, Ye have an Unction from the Holy One, and know all Things, 1 John ii. 20. The Answer is plain, "Ye know all Things that are needful for your Soul's Health." That the Apostle never designed to extend this farther, that he could not speak it in an absolute Sense, is clear first from hence; that otherwise he would describe the Disciple as above his Master, seeing Christ himself, as Man, knew not all Things. — Of that Hour, saith he, knoweth not the Son, but the Father only. It is clear, secondly, from the Apostle's own Words that follow, These Things have I written unto you, concerning them that deceive you; as well as from his frequently repeated Caution, Let no Man deceive you; which had been altogether needless, had not those very Persons, who had that Unction from the Holy One, been liable not to Ignorance only, but to Mistake also.

7. Even Christians therefore are not so perfect, as to be free either from Ignorance or Error. We may, thirdly add, nor from Infirmities. Only let us take Care to understand this Word aright. Let us not give that soft Title to known Sins, as the Manner of some is. So one

one Man tells us, " Every Man has his Infirmary, and " mine is Drunkenness : " Another has the Infirmary of Uncleaness ; another of taking God's holy Name in vain ; and yet another has the Infirmary of calling his Brother, Thou Fool, or returning Railing for Railing. It is plain, that all you who thus speak, with your Infirmities, if ye repent not, shall go quick into Hell. But I mean hereby, not only those which are properly termed bodily Infirmities, but all those inward or outward Imperfections, which are not of a moral Nature. Such are Weakness or Slowness of Understanding, Dullness or Confusedness of Apprehension, Incoherency of Thought, irregular Quickness or Heaviness of Imagination. Such (to mention no more of this kind) is the want of a ready or of a retentive Memory. Such, in another kind, are those which are commonly in some measure consequent upon these, namely, Slowness of Speech, Impropriety of Language, Ungracefulness of Pronunciation ; to which one might add a thousand nameless Defects, either in Conversation or Behaviour. These are the Infirmities which are found in the best of Men, in a larger or smaller Proportion. And from these none can hope to be perfectly freed, till the Spirit returns to God that gave it.

8. Nor can we expect till then, to be wholly free from Temptation. Such Perfection belongeth not to this Life. It is true, there are those who being given up to work all Uncleaness with Greediness, scarce perceive the Temptations which they resist not, and so seem to be without Temptation. There are also many whom the wise Enemy of Souls seeing to be fast asleep in the dead Form of Godliness, will not tempt to gross Sin, lest they should awake before they drop into everlasting Burnings. I know there are also Children of God, who being now justified freely, having found Redemption in the Blood of Christ, for the present feel no Temptation. God hath said to their Enemies, Touch not mine Anointed, and do my Children no Harm. And for this Season, it may be for Weeks or Months, he causeth them to ride on the high Places, he beareth them as on Eagles Wings, above all the fiery Darts of the wicked One. But this State will not last always, as we may learn from that single

Con-

Consideration, that the Son of God himself, in the Days of his Flesh, was tempted even to the End of his Life. Therefore so let his Servant expect to be; for it is enough that he be as his Master.

9. Christian Perfection therefore does not imply (as some Men seem to have imagin'd) an Exemption either from Ignorance or Mistake, or Infirmities, or Temptations. Indeed it is only another Term for Holiness. They are two Names for the same Thing. Thus every one that is perfect is holy; and every one that is holy, is, in the Scripture Sense, perfect. Yet we may, lastly, observe, that neither in this respect is there any absolute Perfection on Earth. There is no Perfection of Degrees, as it is termed; none which does not admit a continual Increase. So that how much soever any Man hath attained, or in how high a Degree soever he is perfect, he hath still need to grow in Grace, and daily to advance in the Knowledge and Love of God his Saviour.

II.) 1. In what Sense then are Christians perfect? This is what I shall endeavour, in the second Place, to shew. But it should be premised, that there are several Stages in Christian Life as well as in natural: Some of the Children of God being but new born Babes; others having attained to more Maturity. And accordingly St John, in his first Epistle, (ch. ii. ver. 12. &c.) applies himself severally, to those he terms little Children, those he stiles young Men, and those whom he intitles Fathers. I write unto you, little Children, saith the Apostle, because your Sins are forgiven you: Because thus far ye have attained, being justified freely, you have Peace with God, thro' Jesus Christ. I write unto you, young Men, because ye have overcome the wicked One; or, (as he afterwards adds) because ye are strong, and the Word of God abideth in you. Ye have quenched the fiery Darts of the wicked One, the Doubts and Fears, wherewith he disturbed your first Peace, and the Witness of God that your Sins are forgiven, now abideth in your Heart. I write unto you, Fathers, because ye have known him that is from the Beginning. Ye have known both the Father and the Son, and the Spirit of Christ in your

your inmost Soul. Ye are perfect Men, being grown up to the Measure of the Stature of the Fulness of Christ.

2. It is of these chiefly I speak in the latter Part of this Discourse. For these only are properly Christians. But even Babes in Christ are in such a Sense perfect, or born of God, (an Expression taken also in divers Senses) as first, not to commit Sin. If any doubt of this Privilege of the Sons of God, the Question is not to be decided by abstract Reasonings, which may be drawn out into an endless Length, and leave the Point just as it was before. Neither is it to be determined by the Experience of this or that particular Person. Many may suppose they do not commit Sin, when they do; but this proves nothing either Way. To the Law and to the Testimony we appeal. Let God be true, and every Man a Liar. By his Word will we abide, and that alone. Hereby we ought to be judged.

3. Now the Word of God plainly declares, that even those who are justified, who are born again in the lowest Sense, do not continue in Sin; that they cannot live any longer therein; (Rom. vi. 1, 2.) that they are planted together into the Likeness of the Death of Christ, (verse 5.) That their old Man is crucified with him, the Body of Sin being destroyed, so that thenceforth they do not serve Sin: That being dead with Christ, they are freed from Sin, (verses 6, 7.) That they are dead unto Sin, and alive unto God, (verse 11.) That Sin hath not Dominion over them, who are not under the Law, but under Grace; but that these being made free from Sin, are become the Servants of Righteousness, verses 14, 18.

4. The very least which can be implied in these Words, is, that the Persons spoken of therein, namely, all real Christians or Believers in Christ, are made free from outward Sin. And the same Freedom which St Paul here expresses in such Variety of Phrases, St Peter expresses in that one (1 Pet. iv. 1, 2.) He that hath suffered in the Flesh, hath ceased from Sin,—that he no longer should live—to the Desires of Men, but to the Will of God. For this ceasing from Sin, if it be interpreted in the lowest Sense, as regarding only the outward Behaviour, must denote the ceasing from the outward Act, from any outward Transgression of the Law.

5. But most exprefs are the well known Words of St John, in the third Chapter of his firft Epiftle, Verfe 8, &c. He that committeth Sin is of the Devil; for the Devil finneth from the Beginning. For this Purpose the Son of God was manifef, that he might deftroy the Works of the Devil. Whofoever is born of God, doth not commit Sin. For his Seed remaineth in him, and he cannot fin, becaufe he is born of God. And thofe in the fifth, Verfe 18. We know that whofoever is born of God finneth not. Bat he that is begotten of God keepeth himfelf, and that wicked One toucheth him not.

6. Indeed it is faid, this means only, He finneth not wilfully; or, he doth not commit Sin habitually; or, not as other Men do; or, not as he did before. But by whom is this faid? By St John? No. There is no fuch Word in the Text: Nor in the whole Chapters; nor in all this Epiftle; nor in any Part of his Writings whatfoever. Why then, the beft Way to answer a bold Affertion, is fimplly to deny it. And if any Man can prove it from the Word of God, let him bring forth his ftrong Reasons.

7. And a fort of Reason there is, which has been frequently brought to fupport thefe ftrange Affertions, drawn from the Examples recorded in the Word of God. "What, fay they, did not Abraham himfelf commit Sin, prevaricating and denying his Wife? Did not Mofes commit Sin, when he provoked God at the Waters of Strife? Nay, to produce one for all, did not even Dauid, the Man after God's own Heart, commit Sin, in the Matter of Uriah the Hittite, even Murder and Adultery?" It is moft fure he did. All this is true. But what is it you would infer from hence? It may be granted, firft, That Dauid, in the general Courfe of his Life, was one of the holieft Men among the Jews. And, fecundly, That the holieft Men among the Jews did fometimes commit Sin. But if you would hence infer, that all Chriftians do, and muft commit Sin, as long as they live: This Confequence we utterly deny. It will never follow from thofe Premiffes.

8. Thofe who argue thus, feem never to have confidered that Declaration of our Lord (Matth. xi. 11.) Verily I fay unto you, among them that are born of Women, men, there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist. Notwithstanding, he that is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he. I fear indeed there are some who have imagined the Kingdom of Heaven here, to mean the Kingdom of Glory: As if the Son of God had just discovered to us, that the least glorified Saint in Heaven is greater than any Man upon Earth! To mention this is sufficiently to refute it. There can therefore no Doubt be made but the Kingdom of Heaven here (as in the following Verse, where it is said to be taken by Force) or, the Kingdom of God, as St Luke expresses it, is that Kingdom of God on Earth, whereunto all true Believers in Christ, all real Christians belong. In these Words then our Lord declares two Things. First, That before his coming in the Flesh, among all the Children of Men, there had not been one greater than John the Baptist: Whence it evidently follows, that neither Abraham, David, nor any Jew, was greater than John. Our Lord, secondly, declares, that he which is least in the Kingdom of God, (in that Kingdom which he came to set up on Earth, and which the Violent now began to take by Force) is greater than he. The plain Consequence is, the least of these, who have now Christ for their King, is greater than Abraham or David, or any Jew ever was. None of them was ever greater than John. But the least of these is greater than he. Not a greater Prophet (as some have interpreted the Word) for this is palpably false in Fact. But greater in the Grace of God, and the Knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore we cannot measure the Privileges of real Christians, by those formerly given to the Jews. Their Ministration (or Dispensation) we allow was glorious; but ours exceeds in Glory. So that whosoever would bring down the Christian Dispensation to the Jewish Standard; whosoever gleans up the Examples of Weakness, recorded in the Law and the Prophets, and thence infers, that they who have put on Christ, are endued with no greater Strength, doth greatly err, neither knowing the Scriptures, nor the Power of God.

9. " But are there not Assertions in Scripture which " prove the same Thing, if it cannot be inferred from " those Examples? Does not the Scripture say expressly,
 " Even

"Even a just Man sinneth seven Times a Day?" I answer, No. The Scripture says no such Thing. There is no such Text in all the Bible. That which seems to be intended is the sixteenth Verse of the twenty-fourth Chapter of the Proverbs: The Words of which are these, A just Man falleth seven Times, and riseth up again. But this is quite another Thing. For, first, the Words a Day, are not in the Text. So that if a just Man falls seven Times in his Life, it is as much as is affirmed here. Secondly. Here is no Mention of falling into Sin at all; what is here mentioned, is falling into temporal Affliction. This plainly appears from the Verse before, the Words of which are these, Lay not wait, O wicked Man, against the Dwelling of the Righteous; spoil not his Resting-place. It follows, For a just Man falleth seven Times, and riseth up again: But the Wicked shall fall into Mischief. As if he had said, "God will deliver him out of his Trouble. But when thou fallest, there shall be none to deliver thee."

10. But however, in other Places, continue the Objectors, Solomon does assert plainly, There is no Man that sinneth not (1 Kings viii. 46. 2 Chron. vi. 36.) yea, there is not a just Man upon Earth that doth Good, and sinneth not (Eccles. vii. 20.) I answer, Without Doubt, thus it was in the Days of Solomon; yea, thus it was, from Adam to Moses, from Moses to Solomon, and from Solomon to CHRIST. There was then no Man that sinned not. Even from the Day that Sin entered into the World, there was not a just Man upon Earth that did Good, and sinned not, until the Son of God was manifested to take away our Sins. It is unquestionably true, that the Heir, as long as he is a Child, differeth nothing from a Servant. And that even so they (all the holy Men of old, who were under the Jewish Dispensation) were, during that Infant-state of the Church, in Bondage under the Elements of the World. But when the Fulness of the Time was come, God sent forth his Son, made under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law, that they might receive the Adoption of Sons; that they might receive that Grace which is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour, Jesus Christ, who hath abolished Death, and brought Life and Immortality to Light thro' the the Gospel, (2 Tim. i. 10.) Now therefore they are no more Servants, but Sons. So that whatsoever was the Case of those under the Law, we may safely affirm with St John, that since the Gospel was given, He that is born of God, sinneth not.

11. It is of great Importance to observe, and that more carefully than is commonly done, the wide Difference there is between the Jewish and the Christian Dispensation, and that Ground of it which the same Apostle assigns in the seventh Chapter of his Gospel. Verse 38, &c. After he had there related those Words of our blessed Lord, He that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath said, out of his Belly shall flow Rivers of living Water, he immediately subjoins, This spake he of the Spirit, ὃ ἐμελλον λαμβανειν οἱ πιστεύοντες εἰς αὐτόν, which they who should believe on him, were afterwards to receive. For the Holy Ghost was not yet given, because that Jesus was not yet glorified. Now the Apostle cannot mean here (as some have taught) that the Miracle-working Power of the Holy Ghost was not yet given. For this was given; our Lord had given it to all his Apostles, when he first sent them forth to preach the Gospel: He then gave them Power over unclean Spirits to cast them out; Power to heal the Sick, yea, to raise the Dead. But the Holy Ghost was not yet given in his sanctifying Graces, as he was after Jesus was glorified. It was then when he ascended up on high, and led Captivity Captive, that he received those Gifts for Men, yea, even for the rebellious, that the Lord God might dwell among them. And when the Day of Pentecost was fully come, then first it was, that they who waited for the Promise of the Father, were made more than Conquerors over Sin, by the Holy Ghost given unto them.

12. That this great Salvation from Sin was not given till Jesus was glorified, St Peter also plainly testifies; where, speaking of his Brethren in the Flesh, as now receiving the End of their Faith, the Salvation of their Souls, he adds, (1 Pet. i. 9. 10, &c.) Of which Salvation the Prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the Grace (i. e. the gracious Dispensation) that should come unto you: Searching what, or what manner of Time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified before hand the Sufferings of Christ, and the Glories (and the glorious Salvation) that should follow. Unto whom it was revealed, That not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister; the Things which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the Gospel unto you, with the Holy Ghost sent down from Heaven (viz. at the Day of Pentecost, and so unto all Generations, into the Hearts of all true Believers.) On this Ground, even the Grace which was brought unto them by the Revelation of Jesus Christ, the Apostle might well build that strong Exhortation, Wherefore, girding up the Loins of your Mind,—as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of Conversation.

13. Those who have duly considered these Things must allow, that the Privileges of Christians are in no wise to be measured by what the Old Testament records concerning those who were under the Jewish Dispensation: Seeing the Fulness of Time is now come; the Holy Ghost is now given; the great Salvation of God is brought unto Men, by the Revelation of Jesus Christ. The Kingdom of Heaven is now set up on Earth, concerning which the Spirit of God declared of old (so far as David from being the Pattern or Standard of Christian Perfection) He that is feeble among them at that Day, shall be as David: And the House of David shall be as God, as the Angel of the Lord before them, Zech. xii. 8.)

14. If therefore you would prove that the Apostle's Word, He that is born of God, sinneth not, are not to be understood, according to their plain, natural, obvious Meaning, it is from the New Testament you are to bring your Proofs, else you will fight as one that beateth the Air. And the first of these which is usually brought, is taken from the Examples recorded in the New Testament. "The Apostles themselves (it is said) committed Sin; nay, the greatest of them, Peter and Paul; St Paul, by his sharp Contention with Barnabas, and St Peter, by his Dissimulation at Antioch." Well, suppose both Peter and Paul did then commit Sin, What is it you would infer from hence? That all the other Apostles committed Sin sometimes? There is no Shadow of Proof in this. Or, would you thence infer, that all the other Christians of the Apostolic Age committed Sin? Worse and worse. This is such an Inference as one would imagine a Man in his Senses could never have thought of. Or, will you argue thus? "If two of the Apostles did once commit Sin, then all other Christians, in all Ages, do, and will commit Sin as long as they live?" Alas, my Brother! a Child of common Understanding would be ashamed of such Reasoning as this. Least of all, can you with any Colour of Argument infer? "That any Man must commit Sin at all?" No; God forbid we should thus speak. No Necessity of sinning was laid upon Them. The Grace of God was surely sufficient for them. And it is sufficient for us at this Day. With the Temptation which fell on them, there was a Way to escape; as there is to every Soul of Man in every Temptation. So that whosoever is tempted to any Sin, need not yield; for no Man is tempted above that he is able to bear.

15. "But St Paul besought the Lord thrice, and yet he could not escape from his Temptation." Let us consider his own Words literally translated. There was given to me, a Thorn, to the Flesh, an Angel or Messenger of Satan, to buffet me. Touching this I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. And he said unto me, My Grace is sufficient for thee. For my Strength is made perfect in Weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in these my Weaknesses, that the Strength of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take Pleasure in Weakness,—for when I am weak, then am I strong.

16. As this Scripture is one of the strong Holds of the Patrons of Sin, it may be proper to weigh it thoroughly. Let it be observed then, first, It does by no Means appear, that this Thorn, whatsoever it was, occasioned St Paul to commit Sin, much less laid him under any Necessity of doing so: Therefore, from hence it can never be proved, that any Christian must commit Sin. Secondly, The ancient Fathers inform us, it was bodily Pain. A violent Head-ach, saith Tertulian (de Pudic.) to which both Chrysostom and St Jerom agree agree. St Cyprian * expresses it a little more generally in those Terms, Many and grievous Torments of the Flesh and of the Body †. Thirdly, To this exactly agree the Apostle's own Words, A Thorn in the Flesh, to smite, beat, or buffet me. My Strength is made perfect in Weakness. Which same Word occurs no less than four Times in these two Verses only. But, fourthly, Whatsoever it was, it could not be either inward or outward Sin. It could no more be inward Stirrings, than outward Expressions, of Pride, Anger, or Lust. This is manifest beyond all possible Exception, from the Words that immediately follow, Most gladly will I glory in these my Weaknesses, that the Strength of Christ may rest upon me. What? Did he glory in Pride, in Anger, in Lust? Was it through these Weaknesses, that the Strength of Christ resteth upon him? He goes on, Therefore I take Pleasure in Weaknesses; for when I am weak, then am I strong; i.e. When I am weak in Body, then am I strong in Spirit. But will any Man dare to say, when I am weak by Pride or Lust, then I am strong in Spirit? I call you all to record this Day, who find the Strength of Christ resting upon you, can you glory in Anger, or Pride, or Lust? Can you take Pleasure in these Infirmities? Do these Weaknesses make you strong? Would you not leap into Hell, were it possible to escape them? Even by yourselves then judge, whether the Apostle could glory, and take Pleasure in them! Let it be, lastly, observed, That this Thorn was given to St. Paul above fourteen Years before he wrote this Epistle, which itself was wrote several Years before he finished his Course; so that he had after this a long Course to run, many Battles to fight, many Victories to gain, and great Increase to receive in all the Gifts of God, and the Knowledge of Jesus Christ. Therefore from any spiritual Weakness (if such it had been) which he at that Time felt, we could by no means infer, that he was never made strong, that Paul the aged, the Father in Christ, still laboured under the same Weaknesses; that he was in no higher State till the Day of his Death. From all which it appears, that this Instance of St. Paul is quite foreign to the Question,

* De mortalitate.

tion, and does in no wise clash with the Assertion of St John, He that is born of God, sinneth not.

17. "But does not St James directly contradict this? His Words are, In many Things we offend all, Ch. iii. "Ver. 2. And is not offending the same as committing Sin?" In this Place I allow it is. I allow the Persons here spoken of did commit Sin, yea, that they all committed many Sins. , But who are the Persons here spoken of? Why, those many Masters or Teachers, whom God had not sent (probably the same vain Men, who taught that Faith, without Works, which is so sharply reprov'd in the preceeding Chapter.) Not the Apostle himself, nor any real Christian. That in the Word we (used by a Figure of Speech, common in all other, as well as the inspired Writings, the Apostle could not possibly include himself, or any other true Believer, appears evidently, first, From the Use of the same Word in the ninth Verse; Therewith (saith he) blest we God, and therewith curse we Men. Out of the same Mouth proceedeth Blessing and Cursing. True; but not out of the Mouth of the Apostle, nor of any one who is in Christ a new Creature. Secondly, From the Verse immediately preceeding the Text, and manifestly connected with it. My Brethren, be not many Masters, (or Teachers) knowing that we shall receive the greater Condemnation: For in many Things we offend all: We! Who? Nor the Apostles, not true Believers; but they who knew they should receive the greater Condemnation, because of those many Offences. But this could not be spoke of the Apostle himself, or of any who trod in his Steps; seeing there is no Condemnation for them, who walk not after the Flesh, but after the Spirit: Nay, thirdly, The very Verse itself proves, that we offend all, cannot be spoken, either of all Men, or of all Christians; for in it there immediately follows the Mention of a Man who offends not, as the we first mentioned did. From whom therefore he is professedly contradistinguished, and pronounced a perfect Man.

18. So clearly does St James explain himself, and fix the Meaning of his own Words. Yet lest any one should still remain in doubt, St John, writing many Years after St James, puts the Matter entirely out of Dispute, by the exprefs Declarations above recited. But here a freſh Difficulty may ariſe. How ſhall we reconcile St John with himſelf? In one Place he declares, "Whoſoever is born of God, doth not commit Sin." And again, We know that he which is born of God, ſinneth not. And yet in another Place he ſaith, If we ſay that we have no Sin, we deceive ourſelves, and the Truth is not in us. And again, If we ſay that we have not ſinned, we make him a Liar, and his Word is not in us.

16. As great a Difficulty as this may at firſt appear, it vaniſhes away if we obſerve, firſt, That the tenth Verſe fixes the Senſe of the eighth: If we ſay we have no Sin, in the former, being explained by, If we ſay we have not ſinned, in the latter Verſe. Secondly, That the Point under preſent Conſideration is not, whether we have or have not ſinned heretofore; and neither of theſe Verſes aſſerts, that we do ſin, or commit Sin now. Thirdly, That the ninth Verſe explains both the eighth and tenth; If we confeſs our Sins, he is faithful and juſt to forgive us our Sins, and to cleanſe us from all Unrighteouſneſs: As if he had ſaid, "I have before affirmed the Blood of Jeſus Chriſt cleanſeth us from all Sin. But let no Man ſay, I need it not: I have no Sin to be cleanſed from. If we ſay that we have no Sin, that we have not ſinned, we deceive ourſelves, and make God a Liar. But if we confeſs our Sins, he is faithful and juſt, not only to forgive our Sins, but alſo to cleanſe us from all Unrighteouſneſs, that we may go and ſin no more."

20. St John therefore is well conſiſtent with himſelf, as well as with the other holy Writers; as will yet more evidently appear, if we place all his Aſſertions touching this Matter in one View. He declares, firſt, The Blood of Jeſus Chriſt cleanſeth us from all Sin. Secondly, No Man can ſay, I have not ſinned, I have no Sin to be cleanſed from. Thirdly, But God is ready both to forgive our paſt Sins, and to ſave us from them for the Time to come. Fourthly, Theſe Things I write unto, ſaith the Apoſtle, that ye may not ſin: But if any Man ſhould ſin, or have ſinned, (as the Word ſhould rather be rendered) he need not continue in Sin, ſeeing we have an Advocate with the Father, Jeſus Chriſt the Righteous.

Thus

Thus far all is clear. But least any Doubt should remain, in a Point of so vast Importance, the Apostle resumes this Subject in the third Chapter, and largely explains his own Meaning. Little Children, saith he, let no Man deceive you (as tho' I had given any Encouragement to those that continue in Sin. He that doth Righteousness, is righteous even as He is righteous. He that committeth Sin is of the Devil: For the Devil sinneth from the Beginning. For this Purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the Works of the Devil. Whosoever is born of God doth not commit Sin: For his Seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. In this the Children of God are manifest, and the Children of the Devil. (Verses 7,—10.) Here the Point, which till then might possibly have admitted of some Doubt in weak Minds, is purposely settled by the last of the inspired Writers, and decided in the clearest Manner. In Conformity therefore both to the Doctrine of St John, and to the whole Tenor of the New Testament, we fix this Conclusion, "A Christian is so far perfect, as not to commit Sin."

21. This is the glorious Privilege of every Christian; yea, tho' he be but a Babe in Christ. But it is only of those who are strong in the Lord, and have overcome the wicked one, or rather of those who have known him that is from the Beginning, that it can be affirmed they are in such a Sense perfect; as, secondly, to be freed from evil Thoughts, and evil Tempers. First, from evil or sinful Thoughts. But here let it be observed, that Thoughts concerning Evil, are not always evil Thoughts: That a Thought concerning Sin, and a sinful Thought, are widely different. A Man, for Instance, may think of a Murder which another has committed, and yet this is no evil or sinful Thought. So our blessed Lord himself, doubtless thought of, or understood the Thing spoken by the Devil, when he said, All this will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Yet had he no evil or sinful Thought, nor indeed was capable of having any. And even hence it follows, that neither have real Christians. For every one that is perfect is as his Master, (Luke vi. 40.) There-

Therefore, if he was free from evil or sinful Thoughts, so are they likewise.

22. And indeed, whence should evil Thoughts proceed, in the Servant who is as his Master? Out of the Heart of Man (if at all) proceed evil Thoughts, (Mark vii. 21.) If therefore his Heart be no longer evil, then evil Thoughts can no longer proceed out of it. If the Tree were corrupt, so would be the Fruit; but the Tree is good. The Fruit therefore is good also. (Matth. xii. 33.) Our Lord himself bearing Witness, Every good Tree bringeth forth good Fruit. A good Tree cannot bring forth evil Fruit, as a corrupt Tree cannot bring forth good Fruit, Matth. vii. 17, 18.

23. The same happy Privilege of real Christians, St Paul asserts from his own Experience. The Weapons of our Warfare, saith he, are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of Strong-holds: Casting down Imaginations, (or Reasonings rather, for so the Word λογισμὸς signifies; all the Reasonings of Pride and Unbelief against the Declarations, Promises or Gifts of God) and every high Thing that exalteth itself against the Knowledge of God; and bringing into Captivity every Thought to the Obedience of Christ, 2 Cor. x. 5, &c.

24. And as Christians indeed are freed from evil Thoughts, so are they, secondly, from evil Tempers. This is evident from the abovementioned Declaration of our Lord himself: The Disciple is not above his Master; but every one that is perfect shall be as his Master. He had been delivering just before some of the sublimest Doctrines of Christianity, and some of the most grievous to Flesh and Blood. I say unto you, love your Enemies, do Good to them which hate you: And unto him that smiteth thee on the one Cheek, offer also the other. Now these he well knew the World would not receive; and therefore immediately adds, Can the Blind lead the Blind? Will they not both fall into the Ditch? As if he had said, "Do not confer with Flesh and Blood touching these Things, with Men void of spiritual Discernment, the Eyes of whose Understanding God hath not opened, lest they and you perish together." In the next Verse he removes the two grand Objections, with which these wise Fools meet us at every Turn, "These Things are too grievous to be born," or, "They are too high to be attained," saying, The Disciple is not above his Master: Therefore, if I have suffered, be content to tread in my Steps. And doubt ye not then, but I will fulfil my Word; for every one that is perfect, shall be as his Master. But his Master was free from all sinful Tempers. So therefore is his Disciple, even every real Christian.

25. Every one of these can say with St Paul, I am crucified with Christ. Nevertheless I live. Yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: Words that manifestly describe a Deliverance from inward, as well as from outward Sin. This is expressed both negatively, I live not. My evil Nature, the Body of Sin, is destroyed: And positively, Christ liveth in me, and therefore all that is holy, and just, and good. Indeed both these, Christ liveth in me, and I live not, are inseparably connected. For what Communion hath Light with Darknes, or Christ with Belial?

26. He therefore who liveth in true Believers, hath purified their Hearts by Faith: Infomuch that every one that hath Christ in him, the Hope of Glory, purifieth himself even as he is pure, (1 John iii. 3.) He is purified from Pride; for Christ was lowly of Heart. He is pure from Self-will, or Desire; for Christ desired only to do the Will of his Father, and to finish his Work. And he is pure from Anger, in the common Sense of the Word; for Christ was meek and gentle, patient and long-suffering. I say in the common Sense of the Word; for all Anger is not evil. We read of our Lord himself, (Mark iii. 5.) that he once looked round with Anger. But with what kind of Anger? The next Word shews, συλλυπόμενος, being at the same Time grieved for the Hardness of their Hearts. So then he was angry at the Sin, and in the same Moment grieved for the Sinners. Angry or displeased at the Offence; but sorry for the Offenders. With Anger, yea, Hatred, he looked upon the Thing; with Grief and Love upon the Persons. Go thou that art perfect, and do likewise. Be thus angry, and thou sinnest not: Feeling a Displecency at every Offence against God; but only Love and tender Compassion to the Offender.

27. Thus

27. Thus doth Jesus save his People from their Sins: And not only from outward Sins, but also from the Sins of their Hearts; from evil Thoughts, and from evil Tempers. "True, say some, we shall thus be saved from our Sins; but not till Death; not in this World." But how are we to reconcile this with the express Words of St John? Herein is our Love made perfect, that we may have Boldness in the Day of Judgment, because as he is, so are we in this World. The Apostle here, beyond all Contradiction, speaks of himself, and other living Christians, of whom (as tho' he had foreseen this very Evasion, and set himself to overturn it from the Foundation) he flatly affirms, that not only at, or after Death, but in this World, they are as their Master, 1 John iv. 17.

28. Exactly agreeable to to this are his Words in the first Chapter of this Epistle, (Verse 6, &c.) God is Light, and in him is no Darknes at all. If we walk in the Light as he is in the Light, we have Fellowship one with another, and the Blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all Sin. And again, If we confess our Sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our Sins, and to cleanse us from all Unrighteousness. Now it is evident, the Apostle here also speaks of a Deliverance wrought in this World. For he saith not, the Blood of Christ will cleanse (at the Hour of Death, or in the Day of Judgment) but it cleanseth (at the Time present) us (living Christians) from all Sin. And it is equally evident, that if any Sin remain, we are not cleansed from all Sin: If any Unrighteousness remain in the Soul, it is not cleansed from all Unrighteousness. Neither let any Sinner against his own Soul say, that this relates to Justification only, or the cleansing us from the Guilt of Sin; first, Because this is confounding together what the Apostle clearly distinguishes; who mentions first, to forgive us our Sins, and then to cleanse us from all Unrighteousness. Secondly, Because this is asserting Justification by Works in the strongest Sense possible: It is making all inward, as well as outward Holiness, necessarily previous to Justification. For if the cleansing here spoken of is no other than the cleansing us from the Guilt of Sin, than we are not cleansed from Guilt; i. e. are not justified, unless less on condition of walking in the Light, as he is in the Light. It remains then, that Christians are saved in this World from all Sin, from all Unrighteousness: That they are now in such a Sense perfect, as not to commit Sin, and to be freed from evil Thoughts and evil Tempers.

29. Thus hath the Lord fulfilled the Things he spake by his holy Prophets, which have been since the World began: By Moses in particular, saying (Deut. xxx. 6.) I will circumcise thine Heart, and the Heart of thy Seed, to love the Lord thy God with all thy Heart, and with all thy Soul; by David crying out, Create in me a clean Heart, and renew a right Spirit within me: And most remarkably by Ezekiel, in those Words, Then will I sprinkle clean Water upon you, and ye shall be clean; from all your Filthiness, and from all your Idols will I cleanse you. A new Heart also will I give you, and a new Spirit will I put within you, and cause you to walk in my Statutes, and ye shall keep my Judgments, and do them.—Ye shall be my People, and I will be your God. I will also save you from all your Uncleanesses — Thus saith the Lord your God, in the Day that I shall have cleansed you from all your Iniquities—the Heathen shall know that I the Lord built the ruined Places.—I the Lord have spoken it, and I will do it, Ezek. xxxvi, 25, &c.

—30. Having therefore these Promises, dearly Beloved, both in the Law and in the Prophets, and having the prophetic Word confirmed unto us in the Gospel, by our blessed Lord and his Apostles: Let us cleanse ourselves from all Filthiness of Flesh and Spirit, perfecting Holiness in the Fear of God. Let us fear least so many Promises being made us of entering into his Rest (which he that hath entred into, is ceased from his own Works) any of us should come short of it. This one Thing let us do; forgetting those Things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those Things which are before, let us press toward the Mark for the Prize of the high Calling of God in Christ Jesus: Crying unto him Day and Night, till we also are delivered from the Bondage of Corruption, into the glorious Liberty of the Sons of God.
